DAN O'LEARY'S CAREER

Dan O'Leary, one of the greatest of long distance walkers, was born June 29, 1842, in County Cork, Ireland. He came to the United States on March 7, 1864, and since then has crossed the Atlantic forty-four times. Mr. O'Leary figures he has walked 105,000 miles in competition since 1871, when he first appeared in walking races in Chicago.

O'Leary defeated Weston in 1875, in Chicago, in a six day race, doing 503 miles to Weston's 451½, and defeated him in two other six day races, one at London in 1877, doing 520 miles to his opponent's 510, and in San Francisco in 1880 when he walked 525 miles to Weston's 499. Dan won the Sir John Astley belt in London in 1878. This walk was go-as-you-please and was for the championship and his mark was 520¼ miles, and he defeated a field of twenty English, Irish and Scotch. His victory was popular and he was tendered a banquet by the members of parliament.

Mr. O'Leary is past 77 years old and celebrated his 77th birthday last June by walking 100 miles in twenty three hours and fifty-four minutes in Chicago to win a $100 wager. He says he expects to walk 200,000 miles before he celebrates his 100th birthday.

DAN O'LEARY'S CAREER

Dan O'Leary, one of the greatest of long distance walkers, was born June 29, 1842, in County Cork, Ireland. He came to the United States on March 7, 1864, and since then has crossed the Atlantic forty-four times. Mr. O'Leary figures he has walked 105,000 miles in competition since 1871, when he first appeared in walking races in Chicago.

O'Leary defeated Weston in 1875, in Chicago, in a six day race, doing 503 miles to Weston's 451½, and defeated him in two other six day races, one at London in 1877, doing 520 miles to his opponent's 510, and in San Francisco in 1880 when he walked 525 miles to Weston's 499. Dan won the Sir John Astley belt in London in 1878. This walk was go-as-you-please and was for the championship and his mark was 520¼ miles, and he defeated a field of twenty English, Irish and Scotch. His victory was popular and he was tendered a banquet by the members of parliament.

Mr. O'Leary is past 79 years old and celebrated his 77th birthday by walking 100 miles in twenty-three hours and fifty-four minutes in Chicago to win a $100 wager. He says he expects to walk 200,000 miles before he celebrates his 100th birthday.

"FIGHTING" BOB MARTIN

HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION OF THE A. E. F. AND INTER-ALLIER ARMIES

Proclaimed by General John J. Pershing: "The mightiest fighting man of forty million fighting men."

Born Albright, W. Va., 11 o'clock, the 11th day of November, 1897. Became 21 years of age at the exact hour of the signing of the Armistice. Height, 6 ft. 2 in. Weight, 190 lbs. Nationality, Irish-Scotch-Indian-American. Under management of Jimmie Bronson, Stanley Hotel, 124 West Forty-seventh St., New York City.

In the qualifying fights of the A. E. F. championship, Martin knocked out 22 of his 27 opponents and defeated the others on points. In the finals at the Cirque de Paris, April 26, 1919, Martin won the title by defeating Fay Kiser in ten rounds.

Sixteen fighting nations sent representatives to the Inter-allied matches at Pershing Stadium, Paris, France, June 22 to July 6, 1919. Martin, representing America, drew byes to the semi finals, when he knocked out Paul Journee, French Army entrant, in 3 rounds. On July 4, 1919, Martin won the championship of the World's Armies by knocking out Captain Gordon Cougill of the Australian Army in 52 seconds.

PINKEY MITCHELL

Milwaukee's Sensational Lightweight

UNDER MANAGEMENT OF

Billy Mitchell, 726-53rd St., Milwaukee, Wis. Phone Wau. 535

FREDDIE WELSH

Former Lightweight Champion,
Captain Sanitary Corps, U. S. Army,
Director-in-Chief Physical Educational
Dept. Walter Reed Army Hospital,
Washington, D. C.

Announces the re-opening of his

162 Acre Physical Training Farm

at Long Hill Summit, New Jersey.

Here in the breezy hills, twenty miles from the crowds and noise of New York City, a limited number of men of refinement will be taught the fine art of right living --close to nature. Playful exercise, wholesome diet, relaxation, will be proportionately prescribed and personally supervised.

Prospectus mailed on request.
